VII. Insurance

Information on the National Health Insurance Scheme of the Republic of Korea for Foreigners

If a foreigner resides in the Republic of Korea for six months or more, he or she will be compulsorily subscribed to the local subscriber scheme of the National Health Insurance starting from July 16, 2019, and he or she will receive the same insurance payment benefits as citizens of the Republic of Korea.

1. Those subject to enrollment
 - Those who are not yet enrolled in the National Health Insurance of the Republic of Korea among those who have resided in Korea for six months or more.
 - Marriage migrants (F-6) are subject to subscription as of entry date into the country (if your alien registration took place later than the date of entry, then from the date of registration)
 - All foreigners except for those with A (diplomat), B (tourist), C (short-term), and G1 (miscellaneous) visas
2. Enrollment process: Processed uniformly by the National Health Insurance Service (NHIS) without any separate reporting procedure
 - ※ If changing and reporting the place of residence at a registration government office, the applicant must report the detailed address precisely, such as the apartment or house number, so as not to incur complications from the mis-delivery of mail.
3. For more information, please access the URL below.
(<https://www.nhis.or.kr/nhis/policy/wbhada02400m01.do>)

Any personal information on the application form will be utilized only for the student's academic affairs concerning the student beginning his/her degree course on Mar. 1st, 2023.
